Saturday 14th April 2012

Hoylake RNLI is one of the oldest lifeboat stations in the UK dating around 1803, covering all approaches to Liverpool Bay. It is voluntarily run by 36 volunteers who are available on call 24/7. 7 volunteers, 1 tractor driver and head launcher required for each crew and 16 shore helpers are also available.

The Lifeboat is an all weather boat and as such can be launched in all weather and tidal conditions from the beach.

A souvenir shop is open Sundays 11am-4pm at the station which provides essential funds towards the running costs of the lifeboat. Last year the shop raised £14,358.

Any donations you would like to make would be gratefully received.

DID YOU KNOW?

Despite it's small size the peninsula boasts no less than 1,900 listed buildings, 215 churches, 50 towns and villages, 25 conservation areas, 9 scheduled ancient monument sites, 8 sites of special scientific interest, 10 lighthouses, 5 nature reserves, 4 windmills, 4 historic parks, 2 watermills, one castle and one fort.

The peninsula's Leasowe Lighthouse, built in 1763, is the oldest brick built lighthouse in the U.K. The lighthouse was also the first in the country to have a female lighthouse keeper, when Mrs Mary Elizabeth Williams began her service as keeper in 1908.

The Wirral's only recognised holiday resort, New Brighton, is home to the United Kingdom's longest promenade at 3.5 kilometres and was classified as one of the most elegant seaside resorts of the Regency period. The town could boast the highest tower in Britain, the largest theatre stage in the world, the largest open air swimming pool in Europe and Britain's first amusements arcade.

The Wirral Country Park was Britain's first ever designated country park when it was opened in 1973.

The world's first, commercial hovercraft service began on the Wirral Peninsula during the Summer of 1962, when passengers were ferried from the Wirral seaside town of Moreton to Rhyl in North Wales on a Vickers VA - 3 hovercraft.

The Ministry of Defence's tidal activity research for the infamous D - Day landings of June 1944 were all taken at Bidston Observatory.

In 1947 the Mersey Ferries were the first boats in the world to be installed with fog radar navigation systems.

Now we all know exercise keeps our heart healthy, combats health conditions and helps improve our mood amongst a list of many other things so why aren't we all doing it. You can give me all the excuses you want from, i'm too busy, i've got kids or i've got a sore knee, for all these excuses i've got a answer. Now the main answer is MAKE TIME FOR YOURSELF!

Now below are 10 general tips to guide you on your way!

- 1 First and Foremost start eating right, this means no chocolate no crisps no 50% off dominos JUST DON'T DO IT! If you are unsure of exactly the best way to eat right join a slimming club.
- 2 Join a Gym - yes that's right join a gym!
- 3 Use the gym! as silly as this may sound a lot of us think by being a member of a gym or telling people we are a member then that's enough, well its not. 3 times a week for 30 minutes is the minimum you should attend the gym.
- 4 Generally be more active. Walk the dog more, walk to the shops, even better walk to the gym!
- 5 Always start your day with a healthy breakfast that provides a slow sustained form of energy release, porridge oats are great for this!
- 6 As well as cardiovascular workouts use weights too, remember the more muscle tissue you have the more calories you can consume day to day. Also as we get older our muscle tissue gradually deteriorates naturally so a little weight training combats this.
- 7 Small regular meals are the best way to eat healthy DO NOT STARVE YOURSELF, 3 smaller meals per day with a healthy snack between is the best (a healthy meal could be a chicken stir fry with 1 teaspoon of olive oil & some fresh chillies, a healthy snack should be something like a riveta with a small amount of low fat cheese spread).
- 8 Eat a wide variety of vegetables & fruit we all know this is a big one, fruit & veg are full of vitamins, minerals, anti oxidants & fibre great for fighting against free radicals and chronic illnesses. Blueberries contain flavonoids that can improve circulation and help defend against infection, Broccoli is rich in the antioxidants vitamin C and beta-carotene, as well as folate, all of which can protect against cardiovascular disease and cancer, Tomatoes are rich in lycopene, a powerful antioxidant that can protect against harmful free radicals.
- 9 Set yourself personal goals whether you have just booked a holiday or have a wedding to attend or just want to drop a few inches of your waist set yourself this goal, write it out and stick it on your bedroom door so every time you wake up you start your day thinking about this.
- 10 Get involved fun events are a great way to stay active and keep you interested whether its a 10 k run or a fun run these are all things to work towards as well. Most of these events are or can be for a charity so you will be doing some good as well.

WALKING THE TRAIL

Thurstaston.
View from the Visitor Centre looking out to the coastal walk and North Wales beyond

The Wirral Country Park is a country park on the Wirral Peninsula, England, lying both in the Metropolitan Borough of Wirral and the county of Cheshire. It was the first designated country park in Britain, opening in 1973.

The park is based around the Wirral Way (Ashton Park to Hadlow Road railway station) which follows the track bed of part of the former Birkenhead Railway route from West Kirby to Hooton. The old line, which closed in 1962, follows the estuary of the River Dee for 7 miles (11 km) between West Kirby and Parkgate, then heads across the south of the Wirral to Hooton.

There are two visitor centres along the Wirral Way; near the site of Thurstaston railway station at Thurstaston and at the preserved Hadlow Road railway station in Willaston.

Work began on the park in 1969, and the park was formally opened in 1973 by Lord Leverhulme. The park's creation followed a successful campaign by Captain Lawrence Beswick DSM which prompted the necessary investment from the Countryside Commission.

Construction of the park required the removal of 30 miles (48 km) of rail track and accompanying sleepers, the digging and forming of drainage channels, leveling and consolidation of thousands of tons of gravel or ballast, and the removal of some brick built road bridges. Of the original railway line, little remains: the old station platform at Thurstaston, the preserved 1950s era railway station at Hadlow Road, Willaston, a number of bridges and the occasional railway incline signs which indicate a degree of climb or descent.

Young Drivers Hit By Rising Car Insurance!

In the last two years young drivers have witnessed a large increase in their motor insurance. That's a 90% increase according to the AA.

Payments have risen by an average of £1,427 to £3,163 for men under 22. Young female drivers insurance has also surged up by £850, all of this is due to the EU ruling which will force insurance companies to charge male and female drivers the same premiums.

The average annual cost for comprehensive now costs around £971 a 5% increase from the end of 2011 according to figures release by the British Insurance Premium Index.

FRODSHAM BREWERY

Award Winning Beers

Beers of distinction honest and true

Frodsham Brewery is a small micro brewery run by Barrie 'the brewer' & his wife Hazel. Brewing began in 2005 and since then has won many awards. It has a growing reputation for quality ales and a world wide fan base.

Initially based in Ellesmere Port and known as 'Stationhouse Brewery' it won a bronze medal for Buzzin at the Great British Beer Festival just before the move to Frodsham in 2007.

The move to Lady Heyes Craft Centre provided the opportunity to open a shop and develop a range of bottled conditioned beers to complement the beer casks supplied to pubs across Cheshire, North Wales, Merseyside, Greater Manchester and South Lancashire. To celebrate the move the brewery changed its name to Frodsham Brewery.

The brewery produces an extensive range of beers both in casks and in bottles and continues to win prizes and medals - nationally, regionally and at local beer festivals. The beers are made from pure ingredients - water, malt, yeast and hops. Each beer is individually designed from original recipes and never blended nor copied.

Shop open every day 10am – 4pm
Bottle Conditioned Beers

Cheese, chutney and mustard all made with Frodsham Brewery Beer

Our motto is 'we produce beers of distinction, honest and true - brewed for flavour not for strength'. Why not visit the shop to see for yourself and try a sample.

Our bottle beers are all bottle conditioned - currently there are 16 varieties from light summer ales to a winter warmer, including a mild, stout, brown ale, wheat beer, fruit beer, Indian Pale Ale and many different bitters. As well as having many interesting varieties and flavours each beer has an interesting story behind its name - some are based on the histories of the local villages e.g. Iron Man is named after Helsby, an iron age fort with the iconic man's face on the hill, and Frodsham 800 to celebrate 800 years since Frodsham got its Charter.

Also available are cheese, chutney and mustard made with our beer. A range of boxed beers are available and make the perfect gift especially if you personalise the bottle labels.
