PHOENIX SOLICITORS

NEW RIGHTS FOR TENANTS

Tenants will be given more rights when changes to the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 are made on 20 March 2019. People who rent will be able to sue their landlords if their homes are not up to scratch. Issues with damp, noise, ventilation, repairs, drainage, infestations and facilities for cooking are a number of the issues tenants will be able to take action on. It will cover tenants immediately and not just for new tenancies, existing tenancies will be covered. These changes mean that those in social housing will now have more power to force local authorities to carry out necessary repairs.

It is estimated that over 1 million rented homes have hazards that pose a serious risk. The new changes will mean that tenants will be able to take their landlord to court for an injunction to compel the landlord to carry out the works or for damages (compensation) for the landlord's failure to keep the property in good repair.

Compensation can also be paid to tenants for any issues that have caused injury or illness.

We offer free advice and take on housing claims on a no win, no fee basis, meaning that help is available. If the disrepair is a serious risk to you or your family members health and safety, then legal aid is available.

You'll need to have information and evidence to help support your case. This includes:

- A copy of your tenancy agreement
- Copies of any correspondence between you and your landlord about the disrepair
- Photographs of the disrepair
- A list of or photographs of belongings that have been damaged because of the disrepair and copies of receipts if you had to replace damaged items
- Copies of medical reports or a note of medical visits if you were injured or made ill by the disrepair.

If you need advice or support then contact us now on

It's famed for the Vatican City, Three Coins in the Fountain, the Roman Empire, the Seven Hills and La Dolce Vita. Rome, as a millennium-long centre of power, culture and religion, has exerted a huge influence over the world in its roughly 2800 years of existence.

Places to visit whilst in Rome:

You will then sail to:
CATANIA, SICILY

Catania is an ancient port city on Sicily's east coast. It sits at the foot of Mt. Etna, an active volcano with trails leading up to the summit. The city's wide central square, Piazza del Duomo, features the whimsical Fontana dell'Elefante statue and richly decorated Catania Cathedral. In the southwest corner of the square, La Pescheria weekday fish market is a rowdy spectacle surrounded by seafood restaurants.

On the journey to DUBAI you will visit such places as SUEZ CANAL, AQABA.

AQABA

Aqaba The Jewel of the Red Sea. Aqaba is a Jordanian port city on the Red Sea's Gulf of Aqaba. Inhabited since 4000 B.C., it's home to the Islamic-era Aqaba Fort and the adjacent Aqaba Archaeological Museum. Its beach resorts are popular for windsurfing and other water sports, and the area is a top destination for scuba divers, with notable dive sites including the Yamanieh coral reef in the Aqaba Marine Park, south of the city.

DUBAI

Known as the jewel of the United Arab Emirates, Dubai has everything from 6 star hotels and Golden beaches to designer shopping malls and fun filled water parks! Dubai is truly a mix of cultures full of ancient mystery and yet still a modern tourist playground. Dubai is also home to the world's most luxurious hotel, the Burj Al Arab. Bridge Community Farms Veg Box scheme expanding due to demand

An Ellesmere Port-based charity that provides healthy fresh vegetable boxes across the region is growing substantially.

Bridge Community Farms, which recently took over the running of the Veg Box scheme developed by The Natural Veg Men, has built a new packhouse to cope with demand.

The Wirral has been added as a new delivery territory, in addition to their current West Cheshire and Chester routes including Tarporley, Frodsham and Malpas.

They are looking for 10 new volunteer drivers – ideally for two Tuesdays per month – to help deliver the weekly vegetable boxes, and a new Commercial Horticulture Supervisor/Market Gardener to join the team.

More volunteers are needed to work in the new Better Lives Café, to help in the farm shop, to mentor the charity's wellness clients and to work on the farm and in the gardens.

Bridge Community Farms supports those coping with mental health and learning difficulties in the therapeutic environment of their 10-acre farm in Ellesmere Port.

They also create jobs for the long term unemployed growing fresh vegetables, salads, herbs and fruit in their fields and poly tunnels. HRH The Earl of Wessex recently visited Bridge Community Wellness Gardens and Farm to see their work.

General Manager Clair Johnson said: "People love eating good fresh local produce and we are delighted that our Veg Box scheme is proving so successful."

"Every box we sell helps to support our charitable work and our sustainable farming practices."

"We need more volunteers to join us across all areas of the business and we also want to hear from local companies interested in promoting our Veg Box scheme to their employees so we can deliver to several customers at one location, being their place of work."

The Veg Boxes are available in three sizes and start at £11.50 (free delivery) for a small box for 1-2 people.

For more information on the charity's veg boxes please visit the website <https://bwgardens.co.uk/> or call 01244 732 842.

Hyundai i10 Premium 'S' 1.0 MPi 67PS

Well, this week I have the funky little i10 to test, and I have to say that Hyundai has gone all out with this new and improved version, and I for one, am really impressed by its remarkable ability to work just as well in the city as it does out on the twisty country roads.

Power and Efficiency:

My test car was fitted with a 1.0-litre, 67PS, 3 cylinder DOHC 12 valve petrol engine, which will reach a max speed of 97mph, which if I'm honest, is just as much fun to use as some of the other 3 cylinder engines currently on the market from other manufacturers.

The 67PS engine is actually very refined, and very good in my opinion. You also get a decent five-speed manual gearbox which is slick and feels well in sync with the engine. Fuel economy was also very good and under normal driving conditions, I managed to achieve a figure of around 60 plus mpg (combined) without breaking a sweat.

On the road:

I will keep it simple here; the little i10 is the perfect car to scoot about in – because it's poised, easy to park and you will always have a little smile on your face whenever you are out and about. Ok, it does feel a little 'firm' but that's all the fun of the i10.

Plus, the steering is also direct and the grip levels are good, which means the i10 feels tight and taugnt into the corners. I'm going to say that Hyundai has done a pretty good job of getting the whole package to work together and I have no issues in saying that it performs well out on the open road. In fact, it has been a while since I have driven any small car that has felt so connected to the road.

Design & Technology

On the outside, the i10 looks relatively elegant, but it does have a basic look about it on the inside. But, saying that, the little i10 is priced very well for its market, so I didn't expect it to be festooned with a carbon fibre dashboard or leather seating.

As I said earlier, it does look a touch basic on the inside, but you do get quite a lot of standard equipment even on 'S' trim, which includes; Black Cloth Seat Trim, Body Coloured Bumpers, Daytime Running Lights, Electric Front Windows, Immobiliser, ISOfix Rear Seats, Rear Spoiler with Integrated Brake light, Remote Control Central Locking, Split Folding Rear Seats (60/40) Tyre Pressure Monitoring System, USB and Aux Connections. Not bad then to get you started really!

To sum up:

The i10 is a decent car that's packed full of additional extras for very little money. If you are thinking of buying one then I would probably opt for the 67PS version as it sips fuel and is cheap to buy and run. Well done Hyundai for making yet another great small car.

Midnight Mountain Trek for Maggie's Merseyside

A team from a local law firm and asbestos helpline raises a towering £1,222 for local cancer charity, Maggie's Merseyside by climbing the highest mountain in Wales in the dead of night.

The 12-strong team from Birchall Blackburn Law and the National Asbestos Helpline started the trek up mount Snowdon during the midnight hour and reaching the cloudy summit at 4:30am to see the sunrise.

The team was led by experienced guides from Raw Adventures, based in Llanberis, who ensured everyone kept to the path.

Snowdon stands at 1,085 metres tall, which is taller than 11 Big Bens. The round trip was more than 10 miles and about 33,000 steps. The fundraisers were higher than the clouds by the time they reached the top, with some strong winds to greet the weary walkers. It took the team seven hours from setting out to crawling back for breakfast.

The team was made up of staff from Birchall Blackburn Law's Preston, Leyland and Chester offices and the National Asbestos Helpline, along with friends and family willing to take on the challenge.

Kathy Wright, from Maggie's Merseyside says 'Last year alone we supported over 15,000 people affected by cancer. Providing free practical, emotional and social support to those who need us most. Our centre offers a safe space away from the clinical environment and our doors remain open thanks to the efforts of our supporters. We are extremely grateful to the team from Birchall Blackburn Law and National Asbestos Helpline for raising vital funds and spreading the word about our life changing services. The challenge they took on was huge and pretty gruelling but the funds they've raised is enough to secure a cancer support group for a whole year. They really have made a difference.'

Elliott Garvey, from the National Asbestos Helpline, says: "It was really tough at times. The cold and lack of sleep really slows you down but knowing every step is for Maggie's Merseyside keeps you going through the dark."

Joan Kennedy, an industrial disease and asbestos specialist solicitor for Birchall Blackburn Law, says: "We were a bit nervous before we set off, especially with it being at night. But once we got over the first steep walk, we all got into it and really enjoyed being able to walk by moonlight. Sometimes we didn't even need our head torches!

"We were so happy to take on the trek for the wonderful Maggie's Merseyside and absolutely smashed our fundraising goal of £1,000, I couldn't be prouder. They do amazing work for those affected by cancer, offering advice and support in a non-clinical space."

Maggie's Merseyside set in the grounds of Clatterbridge Hospital. Maggie's provides free practical, emotional and social support to people with cancer and their family and friends, following the ideas about cancer care originally laid out by Maggie Keswick Jencks.

Maggie's Centres are amazing places with professional staff on hand to offer immediate support. Helping over 65,000 since the Merseyside centre opened 2014.

For more information about Maggie's Merseyside visit their website www.maggiescentres.org/our-centres/maggies-merseyside/ or call them on 0151 334 4301.

FOR THE LOVE OF DOGS AND CLAIRE HOUSE

The Mowgli Trust Dog Show is returning to Claremont Farm on the Wirral and this year it will be even bigger and better than before. The event will be hosted by Jonny Bongo of the legendary Bongo's Bingo and take place on Sunday 7th July, between 9am-4pm

Following last year's success in raising £13,934 at the event, Mowgli Street Food is bringing back the family fundraiser to raise even more for Claire House Children's Hospice, so the charity can reach out to even more children and families who need their support.

Having raised over £100,000 through the £1 on the bill initiative at Mowgli Street Food on Water Street, founder Nisha Katona launched The Mowgli Dog Show in 2018 to raise even more for the hospice.

Nisha Katona said: "Many ask why I launched a dog show the answer is clear. It brings the friendliest, warmest people together all for the love of the dogs that edify our busy lives with their greetings, their smiles and their unswerving loyalty.

"They give the Great British lifestyle a wag of muddy, humble contentment- a day spent at the altar of the humble things in life is a no bad thing and who can complain when it's all in aid for the wonderful Claire House."

Claire House Children's Hospice helps seriously and terminally ill children live life to the full. The hospice helps families smile again when life couldn't get any tougher.

Dan Halliday, Relationships Manager at Claire House said: "At the moment, Claire House is not reaching every child who desperately needs our support, The Mowgli Trust Dog Show is fantastic in helping us to raise awareness of the work we do, and money raised from the event will help us to reach out to even more children."

The show will consist of 10 categories, including best fancy dress, best biscuit catcher and best stay.

Tickets bought online for the event are priced £3.50 each and £5 on the gate. Tickets can be purchased at <https://www.ticketquarter.co.uk/visittiverpool/> Online/default.

Sponsorship opportunities are still available, for more information please email dan.halliday@clairehouse.org.uk.

Summer Gardening Tips

SOW FRESH SEEDS ON VACATED PATCHES

In August the gardening year is almost over. Some vegetables, however, can still be sown without any problems at the now-vacated patches. These include Radishes, Lettuce, Rocket, Winter Onions and Spinach.

DIVIDE SHRUBS

Should the flowering of your shrubs get weaker or should the blossoms get bald inside, it's time to give your summer shrubs a rejuvenating cure by dividing them. August is a good month for dividing spring and summer flowering shrubs. Dig the shrubs out with a spade or a fork and divide the plants into parts. The single parts should be at least as big as a fist. Remove sick and withered root parts as well as bald spots. Planted at suitable locations the shrubs will return in full blossom.

Summer - the time for recreation and holidays. But before you leave for your summer holidays, we have a couple of tips on what to do in your midsummer garden.

CUTTING STRONG GROWING HEDGES

To make sure that hedges grow densely and evenly, they should be cut several times a year. After the main breeding period of birds from March to late July, you can start cutting your hedges again.

SHAPE YOUR BOXWOODS

To preserve the details of boxwood trees or bushes which were cut in shape, you should now cut back your boxwoods and other evergreens. For perfect shapes you can create templates from cardboard.

PRUNING LAVENDER

When lavender has mostly finished flowering, the shoots should be reduced approximately by one third. This prevents the lavender plants from investing too much energy into seed production. The following year, your lavender will be back with a strong bloom.

REMOVE DEAD FLOWERS

Removing wilted flowers is not only done for aesthetic reasons, but also supports the formation of new flowering shoots. The plant can concentrate its power to the fresh flowers. Moreover, the dead flowers will not become a breeding ground for pests or fungi. Some summer shrubs like larkspur, produce flowers a second time in autumn, when they are cut back after the main flowering.

FIRST AID FOR SUNFLOWERS

If your sunflowers did not come through the latest summer storm, the final chapter has not yet been written. With first aid for sunflowers, you can save even turned down stems. Put the fracture in a splint made of bamboo sticks and fix it with duct tape. This way the water supply is guaranteed.

SUCCESSFUL AND ENJOYABLE 90TH ROTARY YEAR

Birkenhead Rotary Club has commemorated its 90th year with both a formal dinner and a marquee Caribbean themed party, raising £1,200 for Rotary supported organisations.

This was the last major event in what has been a very successful year headed by President Bob Hall, who is pictured in his "Caribbean" shirt next to Hugh Smith.

Rotarians, together with Sandie, fourth left who made all the hundreds of tissue floral decorations for the marquee, are pictured getting ready for the celebration, held at New Brighton Rugby Club. A major appeal during the year has been to provide funds for the purchase of a minibus for Shaftesbury Youth Club and the Club target of £12,000 has not only been reached but raised over £13,000. Alongside this other funds have gone to support both community and international projects.

MEET THE YOUNGSTER FROM MEOLS CLEANING UP OUR ROAD SIGNS 6 YEAR OLD GIRL FROM MEOLS IS ON A MISSION TO CLEAN UP ROAD SIGNS AROUND THE AREA.

Chrisell Kenyon is scrubbing and clearing foliage away from street signs, and reporting those which are broken, missing or vandalised to Wirral Council.

The Kingsmead School pupil was inspired to act after her mum and dad struggled to find their holiday destination due to the poor condition of signs.

She has enlisted their help - as well as that of her four year old brother Frederick - in the initiative, which she has named 'Brushing Beautiful!'

Chrisell has even had special hi-vis jackets made, and is using brushes with extra-long handles to reach signs that are high up.

She told West Kirby Today: "By doing this I am giving something back to my lovely community, show how proud I am to be living on the Wirral and hopefully, be doing my bit to improve road safety in my community.

"So far, the Council has been very supportive, especially when it comes to removing pesky graffiti from street signs!"

Brushing Beautiful has its own Facebook page which enables people to see where she has been working and report signs that need attention. They can also be emailed at brushingbeautiful@gmail.com.

WIRRAL CARE HOME GETS ARTY FOR NATIONAL CARE HOME OPEN DAY

Residents and staff at a Wirral care home will be opening their doors and showcasing their creative skills to friends, family and the local community for National Care Home Open Day.

The Hazelwell, a residential, nursing, palliative and respite care home in Heswall, will be joining thousands of other care homes around the UK taking part in Care Home Open Day on Friday, June 28, with a theme this year of celebrating the role of 'Arts in Care'.

The idea behind Care Home Open Day, now in its seventh year, is to encourage local people to visit care homes in the community and work together to build long lasting relationships.

The Hazelwell are inviting the community to join their residents for a cup of tea and slice of cake, take a tour of the facilities if they wish, and share the fun and enjoyment of the day's activities.

To showcase how the Hazelwell use art for relaxation, enjoyment and therapy, staff at the care home will be holding art classes for residents from 2-4.30pm, and visitors will also be able to view an exhibition of the residents previous artwork.

The Hazelwell's care home manager Sue Ball said: "We are always looking at new ways of building relationships with the local community and Care Home Open Day is a fantastic way of bringing generations together.

"Here at the Hazelwell we use art therapy every week as part of our varied activities programme, and we're really excited to be able use this open day as an opportunity to show visitors exactly what happens in our art classes.

"We find creative activities are great for relaxation and stress relief, as well as self-expression. Our classes are also good social occasions as everyone can chat while they work and share in what they have created.

"Our residents are really looking forward to welcoming lots of visitors on the open day and are excited to see their masterpieces being displayed in the exhibition. We're really proud of them and their artwork and can't wait to show it off. We are looking forward to a lovely friendly afternoon of fun."
